Teaplanter kidnapped

TEZPUR, MAY 9 — A tea planter has been allegedly kidnapped by suspected adivasi militants in Assam's Sonitpur district bordering Arunachal Pradesh, police said today. A group of five suspected militants kidnapped 60-year-old Dalm Bora from his residence at Naharjan in Biswanath sub-division of Sonitpur district on Wednesday night. Bora's family members informed the police who began search operations. Sonitpur superintendent of police Arabinda Kalita said, "There has been no demand for ransom so far", he said. The police suspect the involvement of All Adivasi National Liberation Army (AANLA) as they had information about the presence of a group of 12 militants of the outfit taking shelter in the areas bordering Arunachal Pradesh.

chitfund inve

BHL BANESWAR, MAY 9

/— Accusing Odisha government of failing to protect interest of small investors duped by different chitfund companies in the state. Opposition Congress today demanded creation of a corpus fund along the lines of West Bengal to compensate them.

We hope you will show equal amount of empathy as West Bengal. This is because the government has to take responsibility for mistakes by its functionaries, Odisha PCC president Niranjan Patnaik wrote to chief minister Naveen Patnaik. Stating that there was phenomenal growth in non-banking and MFIs in the state, Patnaik said these organisations had flouted rules laid down by RBI and cooperative laws and announced various ponzi schemes to defraud lakhs of small depositors of crores of rupees causing misery and hardship. "Such incidents of cheating and fraud are not new and yet the government has been a mute spectator, intervening with criminal investigations only after people have lost their deposits. What is the point in waking up after the horse has bolted", he asked. I specifically demand that the state takes vicarious liability for mistakes in law
